

Can skills benefit everyone?

In today's dynamic world, the significance of skills for growth – at individual, institutional, economic and societal levels - cannot be overstated. With millions of jobs at risk in carbon-intensive sectors and the urgent need for green and digital skills in economies that must adapt and compe...

Read more ▾

Equitable skills development: insights from 9th Western Balkans Civil Society Forum

“Lower skilled youth have fewer opportunities for reskilling and upskilling throughout life. Governments should engage in dialogue with civil so...

Read more ▾

Innovative financing and skills: interview with Donatella Di Vozzo, ETF

The ETF's Donatella Di Vozzo brings a wealth of specialist financial knowledge to her policy advice role as human capital development specialist...

Read more ▾

Green Skills Award Winners 2023

Lebanon's 'Zero waste' project for student empowerment wins the Green Skills Award 2023

Read more ▾

Pilvi Torsti: my first 100 days as ETF director

"If you are very strong, you must also be very kind", quoting the iconic Pippi Longstocking, Dr. Torsti passionately advocates for investme...

Read more ▾

Copyright © European Training Foundation, All rights reserved.